PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I have recently graduated from Le Wagon, London's Ruby on Rails Full-Stack coding bootcamp. Having previously worked for TaskRabbit, a US-based tech startup company, I am equipped with a strong skill set to cope with a high-paced environment and driving projects to meet deadlines. I am eager to continue my coding journey and currently working on learning more JavaScript with a view to progress to React and Angular. Looking for opportunities to work whilst learning.
